

Troy Historical Museum
60 West Wattles Road
February 18, 1972

Dear Volunteer,

and Prospective Volunteer,

OUR VOLUNTEER-SHIP.

It will be a day to see and do some of the things we have all been wanting. Some have wanted to meet the other volunteers. We all want to see inside the Caswell House. Haven't you a question about some of the teapots in the new exhibit? And we would all like to know how to be really good volunteers. To be able to answer questions about the history of Troy a little better. With a little more know-how some of you could restore another map. We really need a group with desire and know-how to renovate some of the clothing in our collection. It is essential that some learn how to register gifts to the Museum. March 15 will be our day!

Miss Gail Artner, our guest lecturer, comes to us from the Detroit Historical Museum where she is Curator of Education. A Master of Arts degree from the University of Delaware and training in Hagley Museum, Winterthur Museum, and the Williamsburg Restoration, plus great enthusiasm for the work of volunteers in the history museum make her a great asset to our program. She will be showing some stimulating slides and will try to answer your questions.

Our program will be open to the public with the hope that we will gain new volunteers. Because of limited space registration must be limited to 40 persons, and we are asking you to register in advance. The $2.00 registration fee is designed to cover all expenses of our day. (Except your sandwich.)

An outline of the plan for the day and a registration blank are enclosed. Wanieta will send you a receipt which will be your ticket of admission. Please invite anyone you think would make a good volunteer.

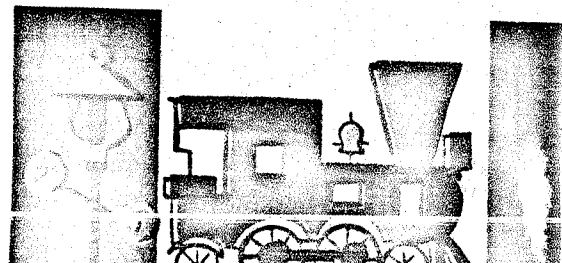

Many are working to make this day possible and we are, indeed, grateful to you.

Sincerely,

Richard Drue and Fran Kreglow, Co-chairmen
